1. In effecting the recently directed reduction and reallocation of military personnel within this Agency, please use the following general policy guide:

a. As a first step, ascertain those military individuals who are willing to be civilianized and whose services as civilian employees would be acceptable within the Agency. Action should be completed to get such individuals on the rolls as civilian employees by 15 December 1949.

b. As a second step, ascertain those remaining individuals excess in their present assignments who can be reassigned to other vacancies for military personnel within the Agency, with special reference to the new allocation expected for OPC. Such reassignments should be completed by 15 December 1949.

c. As a third step, arrange for the return to the military services from which detailed of the balance of military personnel excess in their present assignments who can neither be civilianized within the Agency nor reassigned to other existing vacancies in the Agency. This step should also be completed by 15 December 1949.

d. Take action indicated below to effect readjustment of ORO military personnel assigned abroad:

(1) Ascertain the positions now held by Army personnel which are to be filled by later assignment of Air Force personnel, and the qualifications required of individuals for such positions.

(2) Obtain from the Air Force as soon as possible military personnel with appropriate qualifications or potential qualifications to fill these positions, and arrange for them to enter ORO training.

(3) Upon completion of training arrange for transportation of Air Force personnel indicated in sub-paragraph (2) above to appropriate stations abroad and the return to the U.S., upon arrival of such personnel at their foreign posts, of the Army personnel whom they are replacing. Such Army personnel will be returned to duty with the Army upon arrival in this country.
